ITHIS HAIR WASH has been prepared by us for the last 20 years. Its sale is steadily increasing in India, the Struits and Japan. It possesses all the qualities of Hair Oil or Pomado without their stickiness. It induces a healthy action of the scalp and nourishes the Hair. Dandruff never appears whilst it is in use. It contains none but the best ingredients, and the greatest care is taken in the compounding. When the Hair falls off after fever or any other sickness, this Wash will surely prove of the greatest value.

Grease, Wash, and * Restorer. REPARED ONLY BY LLEWELLYN & CO., Chemists, de.,

SHANGHAI.

DIRECTIONS. A small portion to be poured upon the Head, and to be rubbed into the roots of the Hair. No Pomade required.

From its great nourishing power on the follicles it may in time cause Hair to return to its natural color; it, however, does not contain a particle of any dyeing ingredient. Using it constantly will most certainly mevent the Hair falling. It is cleanly in use. the smallest quantity sufficing. It has no sediment, and therefore requires no shaking. J. LLEWELLYN & Go., by that steamer. Hudson's Surprise Party gave on Saturday evening last in the Theatre Royal, City Hall, one of the best entertainments of the kind ever given and to one of the smallest houses there. The muggy state of the weather had 34 per ton, and the Pacific Mail Company no doubt much to do with this. They play to-night again at the City Hall ; to morrow merchandise. they make their last appearance at the Garrison Theatre, and on Wednesday night give their last performance, positively, at the City Hall, prior to leaving for Australia by the Brisbans which sails on Thursday. WE note from one of our Manila exchanges that "it is whispered in high circles that a project is about to be promoted of establishing an hospital for the Sangleyes (Chinese in the Philippines), which will be under the direction of, and will be visited by, Chinese doctors. Our contemporary has not yet learned the intentions of the authorities on the subject." Might we warm our Philippine friends against imitating the Tung Wah Hospital here? An attempted alliance between the government of such an Institution and the wielding of political power is inadvisable in every way, and cannot but prove fatal to both branches of business proposed to be brought within the scope of the Committee's work. MESSRS Douglas Lapraik & Co. a steamship Hailoong, which, as we notified in Saturday evening's issue, had run aground a little to the north of Amoy, is, it is feared. in great danger of becoming a total wreck. She is reported to have got on the rocks, at the Quemoi Islands; touching fore and aft, but with no support amidships; and it was supposed that under these circumstances she would probably break her book at low! water. The steamship Agamemnon, which left Amoy at 7 o'clock yesterday morning. reports that both an English and Chinesegunboat had gone to the scene of the disaster to render any assistance in their power. The Hailoong was commanded by Captain Hunter.

THERE is one point in connection with the Census taken to-day in this part of Her-Majesty's dominions that ought to be noted; and that is, the fact of its having fallen upon the very day of the tring ming, or general worship of ancestors by the Chinese. It may be alleged that this is by no means a "general worship" in Hongkong; and it must be admitted that the custom is perhaps not so commonly made the pretextfor leave of absence from domestic and other. service as it was in former days. Still the crowded decks of the Canton and Macao steamers during the last week or ten days will be sufficient evidence that this festival dedicated to the rites of ancestral worship is not unacknowledged by a large number of native residents. There can be no doubt but had the Census been taken a week or two before this exodus, or a week or two after the return of these worshippers at the family graves, the numbers would have been larger than they are likely to be by to-day's enumeration. This is in every way to beregretted, as this decennial Census will thus be considerably affected, and when compared with that for 1871, will not be a return possessing those points of fulness? and accuracy so greatly to be desired. It may be that some approximation may be reached as to the numbers who have gone to "pai shan" their family vaults; but apvoximations are not what are simed at hy a numbering of the people, and the Census will be, in so far as the Chinese residents are concerned, somewhat incomplete. THE following account, duly certified, of the everage amount of bank notes in circulation in Hongkong, during the month ending

The petitioner prays (1) for a declaration that the resolution said to have been passed at the general meeting of the Hongkons Club on the date quentioned purporting to expel the petitioner is null and void, and that he is still a mamber of the Club: (2) for an order that his name remain or be restored to the list of members; (3) that the defendants, the Standing Committee of shareholders, and the General Committee of the said Club and their servants, and the servants of the Club be restrained by injunction from interfering in any way with the enjoyment by him of the use and benefit perty in the occupation thereof; (4) that the General Committee and the Acting Secretary be restrained by injunction from the communicating the said so-called resolution to any person or persons, Club or Clubs whatsoever : and (5) that the defendants be ordered to pay the plaintiff's costs of suit. Mr Hayllar now resumed his argument as to the interpretation of the Rules of the Club. #### THE CHINA REVIEW.

THE widely-expressed regret at the discontinuance of Notes & Queries on Thina and Japan, has induced the publishers of this journal to issue a publication similar in object and style, but slightly modified in certain details.

THE CHINA REVIEW, or Notes and Queries on the Far East, is issued at intervals of two months, each number containing about 60 octavo pages, occasionally illustrated with lithographs, photographs, woodcuts, &c., should the papers published demand, and the circulation justify, such

The subscription is fixed at $6.50 postage paid, per annum, payable by non-residents in Hongkong half-yearly in advance. The publication includes papers original and selected upon the Arts and Sciences, Ethnology, Folklore, Geography, History, Literature, Mythology, Manners and Customs, Natural History, Religion, &c., &c., of China, Japan, Mongolia, Tibet, the Eastern Archipolego and the "Far East" generally. A more detailed list of subjects upon which contributions are especially invited is incorporated with each number. Original contributions in Chinese, Latin, French, German, Spanish, Italian or Portuguese, are_admissible. Endeavours are made to present a resume in number of the contents of the most recent works bearing on Chinese matters. Great attention is also paid to the Review

Notes and Replies are classified together as "Notes" (head references being given, when furnished, to previous Notes. or Queries), as are also those queries which though asking for information, furnish new or appublished details concerning the matter in band. It is desirable to make the Queries proper as brief and as much to the point as possible.

The China Review for July and August, 1875, is at hand. It says that forty-two essays were sent in to compete for the best paper on the advantages of Christianity for the development of a State. All our learned societies should subscribe to this scholarly and enterprising Review. It is a sixty paged, bi-monthly, repertory of what scholars are ascertaining about China. The lecture on Chinese Poetry in this volume is alone worth the price of the Review. Address China Review, Hongkong.-Northern Christian Advocate (U.S.)

Trubner's Oriental Record contains the following notice of the China Review :- "This is the title of a publication, the first number of which has lately reached us from Hongkong, where it has been set on foot as in some respects a continuation of Notes and Queries on China and Japan, the extinction of which useful serial a year or two ago has been much regretted in Europe as well as in China. The present publication, judging by the number now before us, is intended to occupy a position, as regards China and the neighbouring countries, somewhat similar to that which has been filled in India by the Calcutta Review. The great degree of attention that has been bestowed of late years upon the investigation of Chinese literature, antiquities, and social developments, to say nothing of linguistic studies, has led to the accumulation of important stores of information, rendering some such channel of publicity as is now provided extremely desirable; and contributions of much interest may fairly be looked for from the members of the foreign consular services, the Chinese Customs' corps, and the missionary body, among whom a high degree of Chinese scholarship is now assiduously cultivated, Arcade, and who are severally represented in the first number of the Review by papers highly creditable to their respective authors. In a paper on Dr. Legge's She King, by the Rev. E. J. Eitel, to which the place of honour is deservedly given, an excellent summary is presented of the chronological problems and arguments involved in connexion with this important work. Some translations from Chinese novels and plays are marked by both accuracy and freshness of style; and an account of the career of the Chinese poet statesman of the eleventh century, Su Tung-p'o, by Mr. E. C. Bowra, is not only historically valuable, but is also distinguished by its literary grace. Beside notices of new books relating to China and the East, which will be a useful feature of the Review, if carried out with punctuality and detail, we are glad to notice that "Notes" and "Queries" are destined to find a place in its pages also. It is to be hoped that this opening for contributions on Chinese subjects may evoke a similar degree of literary zeal to that which was displayed during the lifetime of its predacessor in the field, and that the China Review may receive the support necessary to insure its continuance. The publication is intended to appear every two months, and will form a substantial octavo magazine.
